

GOOLMA COMMUNITY VOICE

Everyone is being so thoughtful by following the recommended guidelines in keeping healthy and safe. Thank you everyone. Everyone is aware that if they are unwell they stay home to ensure the well-being of everyone else and a speedy recovery for themselves.

Goolma Public has joined with Cassilis, Ulan and Ballimore schools to work with Red Hill EEC on being eco schools. Our theme is Litter and waste. Last Friday we completed our audit of waste from all areas of the school. It was sorted by all hands wearing gloves, counted or weighed with food being taken to the compost bins. We also checked up on the worm farm. All very interesting and exciting. Our goal is to reduce our waste as much as we can and recycle as much as we can.

Our helpful and happy chaplain Mr Hudson Jordan has relinquished his role at Goolma Public. He was always keen to help anyone at school. Our new chaplain is Mr Dan Gorrie who is busy in the classroom and in the playground helping everyone in a range of activities.

Keep washing those Hands.

Mrs Cooney has been shopping and replaced the few plants in the maze that had succumbed to weather or kangaroo challenges. As with all things in the ground the rain has certainly moved things along. Really looking forward to when we can again invite people in to share the delights of our maze and other projects in the school.

Mrs Fitzgerald worked with the children to make clever picture frames which were used to frame a photo of each child. These then became much valued Mother's Day gifts.

Dates to Remember

Public Holiday

Claire is in need of some manure for our vegetable garden around the school if anyone could bring some in for her it would be much appreciated.

The school has small Kurrajong Trees potted for sale if anyone is interested. Excellent farm fodder trees for stock for the next drought.

A note from the Teacher:

A busy start to Term 2 in the classroom. This term we are learning about Aboriginal culture in history also space in science. We are developing skills in art and craft for Creative Arts.

Please feel free to contact me if you wish to discuss your child's progress.
